

Kangaroo Grass

Themeda triandra

Kangaroo Grass is widespread within Australia and was probably the original native dominant of all Australian grasslands.

The perennial species can reach up to 1.5m tall and half a metre across, with leaves up to 50cm long.

This high drought and heat tolerant grass flowers in summer, producing large red-brown spikelets on branched stems.

Biganga Possum Skin Cloak © Artist Lee Darroch Yorta Yorta 2007

Boulevard Bush Reserve

A jointly managed community native open space.

