

Little Marbled Scorpion

Lychas marmoreus

Australia has 25 species of scorpions, with 12 found in the Goulburn Broken Catchment.

None of these are deadly but stings can cause inflammation and pain.

The Little Marbled Scorpion is only about 30mm in length and usually found living under stones or amongst piles of litter on the ground.

Biganga Possum Skin Cloak © Artist Lee Darroch Yorta Yorta 2007

Boulevard Bush Reserve

A jointly managed community native open space.

