

Water Water Aesthetic Responses to the Goulburn Broken Catchment

An Exhibition of Visual Art and Architecture

School of Art, The Australian National University and
Master of Architecture, School of Architecture and Design, RMIT University

6 September - 14 October 2012

- Shepparton Art Museum / Eastbank Foyer Gallery
- Shopfront / The Butter Factory Precinct

A Performance of Contemporary Music

School of Music Contemporary Music Ensemble
School of Music
The Australian National University

5.30 pm Tuesday 25 September 2012

Shepparton Art Museum / Eastbank Foyer Gallery
+ Official Exhibition Celebratory Event

Erika Kusumoto Twilight 2012 35.0 x 80.0 cm
Natural pigment

Water Water Aesthetic Responses to the Goulburn Broken Catchment

You are cordially invited to the Official Exhibition Celebratory Event

5.30 - 6.45 pm Tuesday 25 September
Shepparton Art Museum / Eastbank Foyer Gallery

• Welcome Address

Peter Ryan, Chairman, Goulburn Broken
Catchment Management Authority

• A Performance of Contemporary Music

School of Music Contemporary Music Ensemble
School of Music
The Australian National University

RSVP by Monday 24 September to Cindy Doherty: ph 5825 5285 or email cindy.doherty@shepparton.vic.gov.au

Further Information
Contact Cindy Doherty

The exhibition and music performance were inspired by a Field Studies program conducted in Shepparton, Mooroopna, and the surrounding Goulburn Broken Catchment in partnership with RiverConnect, Greater Shepparton City Council. Program contributors include: Goulburn Broken Catchment Management Authority, Goulburn Broken Landcare Network, Yorta Yorta Nation Aboriginal Corporation, Parks Victoria, Goulburn Valley Environment Group, Gallery Kaiela, Goulburn Murray District Scouts, Shepparton Camera Club, Shepparton Heritage Centre, Northern Victoria Irrigation Renewal Project and the Shepparton Art Museum

Exhibition Venues / Opening Times

• Eastbank Foyer Gallery / SAM
70 Welsford Street, Shepparton
Open: 10.00 am - 4.00 pm Daily

• Shopfront / Butter Factory Precinct
440 - 452 Wyndham Street, Shepparton
Opening Times: Posted at Eastbank Foyer
Gallery or contact Cindy Doherty

